A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

As my small grandson has told me 'It is Autumn now Granne'. He's not wrong. Suddenly so much work needs doing in the garden before we can start preparing for Spring. It's rather like cleaning the house after the grandchildren have stayed for half-term!

Our small advert website is up and running but we need more buyers. Everyone loves a bargain and there are some very good ones to be had on our website (address on page 2). The bonus is that advertising is free, no packing and posting and no paying on the internet. Go on, have a look at it.

PARISH COUNCIL REPORT from the Clerk

The Parish Council met on Wednesday 13 October 2010

Comberton Parish Plan - Your chance to say what you want to see happening in Comberton!

You should have, by now completed your questionnaire and had it collected. It really is important to let the Council know your views so if you haven't completed it yet please do. If you have completed it but it hasn't been collected please contact the Clerk who will arrange this. Thanks you.

Parking problems associated with CVC – B1046 road including junction with Kentings

Thank you to all the residents who took the time to write to the Council in response to the article in last month's Contact about the cost to the village of yellow lines in Kentings. The Parish Council has considered these and decided not to pay for the lines and if the County Council still won't then the Parish Council will reconsider the matter again once CVC is at capacity.

A site meeting will be taking place in November with representatives from the Parish Council, the County Council, Bennell Farm, Toft Parish Council to discuss the proposals for yellow lines along West Street outside the Village College.

Dogs on the recreation ground

Thank you to everyone who, when walking their dogs on the recreation ground keep them under control and cleans up after them. Unfortunately there are some that do not and the Council would like to ask that all dog owners keep their dogs under control, on a lead if necessary and appreciate that not everyone likes dogs and some people and children may be scared of loose dogs. There has been an increase of dog mess on the recreation ground so please ensure that dog mess is picked up and disposed of in one of the dog bins. As I said many residents are responsible dog owners this reminder goes out to the others. Thank you.

Affordable Housing – land off the The Valley

The District Council has confirmed that the Homes and Communities Agency have agreed to fund The Valley project as 6 rented and 5 shared ownership units and all that is needed now is to sort out the planning permission and get on site before the 31st March 2011.

Other

Parish Council vacancies

Three members have recently resigned from the Council and information on the casual vacancy process is on the notice board.

In May 2011 the next elections for all the 13 seats on the Council will be held. More information on this will be advertised on the notice board in South Street nearer the time.

Donations and grants

Each year the Parish Council is able to support village groups and clubs which in the opinion of the Council is in the interests of the area and its inhabitants.

Bonfires

A bonfire can be a convenient way of getting rid of a large amount of waste. If a bonfire is the most practicable way to dispose of dry garden waste (for example, diseased plant material that cannot be composted) please

- warn your neighbours - so that there are no complaints.
- avoid lighting the fire in unsuitable weather conditions, smoke hangs in the air on damp, still days and in the evening. If it is windy smoke may be blown into neighbours' gardens and across roads.
- avoid burning at weekends and on bank holidays when people want to enjoy their gardens.
- avoid burning when air pollution is high.

When the questionnaire envelope comes through the door you'll easily recognise it by the purple 2011 Census logo. Take care of it. If, like many people, you want to complete the questionnaire online, your individual internet code is on the front of the questionnaire.

This is a busy month. We have a number of visiting preachers and speakers, and several special services. Check the times and dates carefully to make sure you arrive at the right time. We welcome back Andrew Vaughan, who lived in Comberton and was linked to St Mary's during his ordination training. We also have a special service for Remembrance Sunday and the big annual joint service for all the local churches at Comberton Leisure.

On the evening of Wednesday 3rd November we welcome Rev Dr Mike Thompson, lecturer in New Testament at Ridley Hall, speaking on Making Sense of the Bible. He's an excellent speaker - not to be missed.

There is a simple, quiet service of Morning Prayer at 9.15am every Tuesday in St Mary's. Everybody is welcome. We pray for the needs of the village - please let us know if there is anybody or anything in need of particular prayer. St Mary's Church building is open all day every weekend, not only when there are services. Please feel free to come in at any time, to sit, pray, think or simply enjoy the quiet.

NEWS FROM THE MERIDIAN PRIMARY SCHOOL

Opportunity - Creativity - Challenge
Excellence for All

This month I wanted to tell you about a collaboration between schools which is proving to be a very effective way of extending opportunities for both our children and staff. Network 11 is a group of schools consisting of ten local primary schools and the secondary school they feed in to – Comberton Village College.

The Headteachers of those schools had always met about once a half term but we strongly felt that we wanted a grouping that was much more dynamic and supportive. Hence Network 11 was created in 2009. The first thing we did (after deciding on the name!) was to appoint a co-ordinator, whose role is to strengthen the links between us.

Now it's no longer just the Heads who meet. Regular meetings take place between teachers who lead Maths, Literacy, Music, Eco-schools leaders and, more recently, Chairs of Governors. We also take part in joint training sessions – sometimes just a couple of schools are involved, sometimes many more. In April, for example, all the teachers of the ten primary schools will spend a day learning from Pie Corbett, the well-known children's writer.

We also put on special events for the children – in the pipeline at present are a Careers Conference for Year 6 children, a singing day for Year 3, and we are exploring the possibility of a Network 11 Saturday Orchestra. Working parties split off to organise particular events but behind it all is our very efficient co-ordinator, who ensures that Network 11 functions effectively.

We have lots of ideas for the future including sharing use of facilities, expertise and, in these straitened times, shared service provision. We believe that, because of Network 11, our joint voice is much stronger and we can represent our communities much more effectively in our dealings with outside agencies. Our schools are all very different but our desire to achieve the best for our children is the great unifying factor.

Those half-termly Heads' meetings still take place, but now they are just one small part of the activities of that dynamic, supportive collaboration we were seeking.

COMBERTON VILLAGE COLLEGE: A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Change is in the air. Not just the move to Autumn and then on into Winter, but change on the political and educational landscape. All of us involved with public services are obviously now working our way through the implications of the public spending review. As schools, we know that we have been protected from some of the most radical cuts, but there are still very significant changes and challenges ahead for us in the new world that is emerging.

In such times, a key question for any of us must be: 'What is it that we really stand for?' If we are to reflect on how we should react to the new challenges and opportunities of a changing world, we need a guide. We need some clear principles. Without this, we are likely to flounder and to be uncertain and unclear in our reaction and our decision-making. In this context, the principles of the Comberton Educational Trust, now formed and overseeing Comberton Village College for two years (and Jeavons Wood Primary School since it opened in September 2009) seem especially helpful and important. The trust holds 5 key principles:

- Education of the highest standard.
- Education for all pupils, regardless of ability, background and other possible factors.
- Education at the heart of the community: the Henry Morris principle.
- An outward-looking approach that always seeks to work in partnership for mutual benefit.
- Education with a clear international dimension.

Any school that affiliates to the Comberton Educational Trust must adhere to these principles. A key role of the trustees is to ensure that this is the case. The principles can then be helpful to judge what might be done in a changing world. For example, as a school judged as 'outstanding' in its last full Ofsted inspection, Comberton Village College was invited to join the first wave of the new 'converter' Academies in the country. How should such a decision be made? The answer becomes clear: how does this possible move match up against the key principles? If it can enhance some of the principles and not detract from others, then it looks a good way to proceed. If it does the reverse, then it would be a bad idea. Through this logic, both the governing body of Comberton Village College and the trustees of the Comberton Educational Trust voted unanimously to proceed with an application for Academy status. If all proceeds smoothly, Comberton Village College will thus become an Academy at some point in the New Year. Out of interest, the name of the Academy will be: Comberton Village

COMBERTON VILLAGE COLLEGE EVENTS

The next few months at CVC look like being extremely busy and we would be delighted to see members of our local community at these events.

A traditional pre-Christmas favourite for the whole family is always the CVC Christmas Bazaar. This year it will take place on December 4 from 11am-2.00pm.

It promises to be a fun-filled event. Father Christmas will be in his grotto, there will be a café offering a range of delicious lunchtime fare as well as a wide range of activities and stalls designed to raise funds to help disadvantaged pupils within our own community and in our partner schools in Africa.

Visitors always enjoy having a range of stalls run by members of the college and the wider community. If you would like to run a stall at the bazaar, please download the booking form by following the link from the college website, www.combertonvc.org and return it with the fee to the Finance Office at CVC by November 19 please. Hard copies may be collected from the Community Education office at CVC or Cb3.

If you would like to donate a prize for the raffle, please e-mail publicity@comberton.cambs.sch.uk or drop it in at the college for the attention of Ally Brennan.

One of the most popular stalls in the past has been 'Make Me an Offer'. For this we require any unwanted and unused presents and items you may have at home for any age group. If you want to have a pre-Christmas clear-out and donate to this stall, please contact us or drop in.

More details of all our events can be found on the college website above or the Comberton Leisure website at www.combertonleisure.com

We look forward to seeing you at the college soon.

COMBERTON WI

Members met in October to celebrate 70 years of the WI in Comberton. We had many visitors, including the County Chair, Mrs Heather Wilkin. The speaker was Barry Kaufman-Wright, an ex-policeman and wildlife photographer. Barry has spent much of his career protecting wildlife. We were treated to excellent wildlife photos of many native plants and animals and Barry talked very knowledgeably about all of them. Afterwards members enjoyed birthday cake and toasted our 70th birthday.

Date for Diary: Tuesday 9th November at 7.45pm in the Village Hall – Trawler Men – the true price of fish and chips with Andy Malcolm.

COMBERTON ALLOTMENTS & GARDENS ASSOCIATION THE COMBERTON SHOW

It is always up-lifting to see such support for village events. Over two hundred people came to the Comberton Show on 18 September to marvel at 737 exhibits of vegetables, fruit, flowers, cookery, preserves, wines, and handicraft, including 201 paintings and drawings from the school-children. The younger members of the community also produced the biggest display of cooking and model making for the show for many years. Well done the children and the parents for their time and encouragement. The Exhibits, according to the judges were of a very high standard. Teas, a Raffle and the auction of the top quality exhibits finished off a splendid day. Thanks must be given to the show secretary, Robin Worship, the CA&GA committee and their spouses for all the time and hard work that is required to make the event such a success. Richard Gant, Head 24th September saw 40 members of the Twinning Association depart for our annual visit to Le Vaudreuil, in Normandy. After an (admittedly) slow journey (thanks to the M25 on a Friday afternoon), we all enjoyed an enjoyable weekend, with many visiting a large Impressionist Art Exhibition in Rouen, plus a guided tour of Chateau Gaillard at Les Andelys, and a visit to a restored water mill. Before dinner on the Saturday night, in their grand 'Village Hall', there was a small ceremony to officially celebrate the installation of a defibrillator in the hall, some of the funds being raised in Comberton, in memory of our member Mike Winney, who sadly died on one of these visits. The photograph shows Jane Winney at this ceremony, with the Mayor of Le Vaudreuil apparently praying!! New members are always welcome,, especially families.. speaking French is certainly not a requirement !

Fallen leaves

Leaves should be cleared away as they fall. If left for more than a few days, then grass may become damaged. Compost the leaves and then use on borders etc.

Worm Casts

This month will probably see the appearance of worm casts (small mounds of earth brought to the surface by worms). Treatments can be applied to stop the casts occurring in the first place.

Disease

With damp dewy days ahead diseases such as fusarium can kill patches in your lawn. If you see white mould or dead patches please call us for an accurate diagnosis as it may need treating with a fungicide.

Moss

Moss will start to encroach now and it is advisable to treat now before it competes with the lawn.

Actions required in November

- Aerate lawn if conditions allow
- Remove fallen leaves
- Brush off worm casts (or treat the cause of the problem)
- Look out for disease
- Plan moss control

The lawn owner can carry out some of the above tasks; other tasks may need some professional intervention.

PLANNING FOR SPRING BERRIES FOR BIRDS

November gardens are brightened up by berries. These are carried either on shrubs or small trees. Some of the berries attract garden birds and for anyone finding it difficult to walk about, the bird's antics are engaging to watch from a chair inside. Therefore, it is useful to have a number of berry bushes that are also good bird feeders. The ideal situation is to have a hedge planted with shrubs native to Britain. The hedge will provide cover for the small birds and reduce predation by sparrow hawks. Native shrubs and trees will also be a haven for insects which will attract other types of birds, such as tits, that have a preference for insects.

clusters of red berries appear in late September. The common hawthorn, Crataegus monogyna, with its deeply cut leaves and one seed per berry, is better than C. laevigata whose leaves are shallow cut and contain two seeds per berry. Generally, single-seeded berries have more flesh and are therefore more nourishing to birds. The berries are eaten by blackbirds and thrushes. When wintering flocks of fieldfare and redwing arrive from Scandinavia in October, a good haw crop can be grazed over quite quickly. Mistle thrushes can be territorial on hawthorns and chase off other birds. Ivy, Hedera helix, growing naturally in the hedge, flowers in autumn and does not produce berries until the winter, December through to May. The berries are black and very nutritious for hedgerow birds.

Shrubs

The spindle bush, Euonymus europaeus, so called because its growth is thin and spindly, provides attractive berries with a pink four-lobed outer casing that splits to reveal the bright orange fruits. Robins and long-tailed tits are very partial to this fruit; the berries appear in October and last until February. The common holly, Ilex aquifolium, produces berries only on female bushes; a male bush is needed nearby to provide pollen for fertilizing the female flowers. Holly berries have the longest season and are food for blackbirds, thrushes, robins and blackcaps. Often a pair of mistle thrushes will defend a holly tree and ward off intruders. Holly berries are bright red and contain a poison, ilicin, that causes stomach upsets in man. If there is snow in the winter, mistle thrushes can be overwhelmed on holly by masses of other birds, e.g. redwings and fieldfares trying to find food to survive.

Trees

The rowan tree, Sorbus aucuparia, and its relative the whitebeam, S. aria, provide a good flush of berries each year. The rowan's red berries do not last long; blackbirds are the main eaters and hardly any fruits remain in mid-November. The whitebeams provide fruit until December for the thrush families and seed eaters like the finches. Even magpies, jays and crows will eat them if there is little else. Crab apples, Malus sylvestris, form a good food source if left on the ground. A wide range of birds eat them in late January and early February.

Isaiah58 involves young people from local churches helping out in the village community.

We have moved furniture, trimmed hedges, weeded gardens, swept leaves and painted bus shelters....

No project too small!
