From the Editor

The autumn season and darker evenings are now upon us, but there is still plenty going on in the village to keep us entertained. For example, tickets for the Comberton Players Pantomime go on sale on 5th November - check the back cover for details.

Comberton Parish Council has opened an online survey regarding recreation facilities in Comberton, including the recreation ground, the walking paths, the swimming pool and the pavilion. This survey aims to gather the thoughts and wishes of all users of our recreation facilities, whether they are residents of Comberton or not. The Parish Council welcomes a response per person, including children (parental supervision is encouraged for children under 11 years old). The survey link and QR code can be found on page 23.

All groups using the facilities are invited to send a letter to the Comberton Parish Clerk (ParishClerk@Comberton.org) with their thoughts about the recreation facilities.

The survey will close on 22nd December 2022.

Meridian Primary School

Learning for life – striving for excellence

Greetings Neighbours,

We have had a busy and enjoyable first half term of this academic year.

Both Y3 and Y4 have taken part in Team building days. Y4's activities included Stone Age orienteering and a Midnight crossing. Y3 enjoyed crossing the swamp and Detective Squad amongst other activities. A number of children were able to join other schools from the South Cambridgeshire Partnership at CVC in an exciting Outdoor Adventurous Activity Challenge Event.

Our Meridian Fun Run had a route starting on the recreation ground and ending up on the school field. An amazing £187.53 was raised and this together with £50 donated from the Y6 Enterprising Day in July will be given to the Lisa Kent Trust to sponsor two children to pay for their school fees so they are able to access an education. The determination and resilience of all the runners was brilliant.

We held our annual Harvest Festival assembly in October with Reverend David Newton visiting us for a time of reflection for all the people who work in the food industry. Meridian children took part in the assembly by creating a harvest display of foods, prayers, singing and learning about harvest and drought around the world. Thank you to all our parents/carers in their generosity in donating food items to Jimmy's Shelter.

At Meridian School, we strive to provide all pupils with opportunities to appreciate, make and discuss music in different forms. We believe in inspiring children to make and develop a love of music giving them a lifelong gift of creativity, as well as a wealth of practical skills, such as concentration, dexterity, co-ordination and memory. We are currently offering lessons in piano, clarinet, cello, recorder, flute, drums, violin, saxophone and brass and we run a number of groups for children to play together – a KS2 choir, a school orchestra and a Music Makers Steel Pan orchestra.

We are lucky to welcome an external company into our school to provide dodgeball and gymnastics clubs after school. Their coaches are also attending school two lunchtimes a week to lead on sports and team activities and these sessions are provided by the school. We also continue to run a football club with another external company.

We will be holding an Open Morning for children looking to join us in reception next academic year 2023-2024 on Thursday 24th November.

We are always pleased to hear from members of the community who would like to serve the school as governors. If you would like to know more about the role please contact the Chair at chair@meridian.cambs.sch.uk Should you prefer to serve as a regular volunteer, e.g. listening to children reading and sharing their own personal interests related to some of our topic work, please do contact the School office office@meridian.cambs.sch.uk

Kind regards,

Mrs C. Etchie

THE SHED

A Shed is a community space for people to connect, converse and create. A Shed provides a space for people to do woodworking, or other bits of DIY, alongside other people. Sheds help reduce loneliness and isolation, and provide a lot of fun.

We are being encouraged by local NHS partners to see if we can start a Shed in Comberton. But we need a venue, and an initial group who are willing to get it off the ground...

Venue: We need an accessible space, the size of a large shed (or bigger). It would need to be available at least 2 mornings a week, with space to store tools. Ideally, The Shed would have its own space.

A Group: We need a small group – or one individual – who loves the idea, and is willing to put the work in to make The Shed a reality.

Find out more: menssheds.org.uk.

There is a Shed in Bar Hill, and one in development in Cambourne.

Yew Trees Churchyards and Walls

Most people have a hazy memory of being told that yew trees in churchyards were used to make the Long Bow of England; famous for centuries as the most fearsome war weapon. So the story goes on that all parts of yew being so poisonous to cattle, the only place to keep these trees in order to equip the army, is in the churchyard because that has a wall around it which keeps the cattle out.

It's a good story but it doesn't hold up well to scrutiny. For many reasons. The English yew species is notorious for having gnarled and twisted branches compared with foreign species of yew, from which English bowyers could make better bows. This was reflected in the costs of using the foreign wood - a matter of about three times as expensive. One English tree at any one time might with luck produce four bows - enough maybe in a churchyard of several such trees to satisfy the local requirements of the community - but many British sovereigns down the centuries had to import yew staves from all over Europe and the East by the tens of thousand to satisfy the needs of their archers.

Furthermore many of these churchyard trees were thousands of years old, and another theory says that many churches were deliberately built on sites of earlier pagan religions where yew trees were worshipped. Certainly the Pope instructed St Augustin to do this as he introduced the Church to Britain. This would indicate many trees were there before the churches. This is but the tip of the iceberg of theories about yew trees in graveyards, but you get the drift.

And the walls? From their first building, the area around a church was usually enclosed by walls made from local material and the enclosure, often used for village activities from fairs to archery practice, also accommodated the graves of departed villagers, and was always a place of Sanctuary. It is estimated that there have to be many thousands of now-unidentified bodies in graveyards such as ours: bodies long since buried over with later interments. It is unsurprising that some churchyards are higher than their surroundings or that churchyard walls bulge outward under the pressure of bodies and the often excessive quantities of soil brought in to accommodate new burials.

The boundary walls of our churchyard are mainly flint and some parts are likely to have been in place many centuries. Over this time many repairs have been carried out and in places whole sections have been rebuilt. Currently there is serious deterioration in the western boundary, especially near the entrance to the north door. The Friends of St Mary's have underwritten the repointing and repair of this section of the wall which will commence at the end of this month.

Sponsored by the Village Hall Trustees

In 1961, Kempton Bunton, a 60 year old taxi driver, stole Goya’s portrait of the Duke of Wellington from the National Gallery in London. It was the first (and remains the only) theft in the Gallery’s history.

Kempton sent ransom notes saying that he would return the painting on condition that the government invested more in care for the elderly - he had long campaigned for pensioners to receive free television.

What happened next became the stuff of legend. Only 50 years later did the full story emerge - Kempton had spun a web of lies. The only truth was that he was a good man, determined to change the world and save his marriage - how and why he used the Duke to achieve that is a wonderfully uplifting tale.

Comberton Antiquarian Society

The next meeting will be on Tuesday 22nd November at 8pm in the Village Hall when Tamsin Wimhurst will give a talk on “Queen Victoria’s Jubilee in Cambridge”

Tamsin Wimhurst is a well known historian, conservationist and lecturer. She has worked with a wide variety of communities and organisations in order to help them access their history and encourage an interest in their past.

All visitors most welcome.

Comberton Playgroup Autumn Term News

Hello Parents, neighbours and friends!

For the first half term at Playgroup we have been welcoming back our children and their families after the summer holidays, going on Autumn walks and learning about different modes of transport.

The children have been making shape vehicle pictures, rockets and space stations out of junk modelling, and creating vehicles such as trains and tractors out of large loose parts outside, such as crates, tyres, planks of wood and cardboard boxes.

For the last week before half term we are hoping to take the children for a trip on the bus (fingers crossed!)

In Pre-school the children have been exploring the world, learning about different countries and their traditions. Some of the activities have included cooking, singing, craft activities and counting in other languages. We would like to say thank you to Natalie Mansfield who came in to make clay pots with the Pre-schoolers, which they thoroughly enjoyed!

Alongside of our curricular activities we have started our 'Outdoor Explorer Sessions'. Every week each room will spend a whole morning outside. During our Outdoor Explorers sessions, we will be using only natural, repurposed or upcycled resources. The children will benefit from outdoor curriculum linked learning, which will cover all the Early Years Foundation Stage seven areas of learning as well as supporting the Characteristics of Effective Learning in an outdoor environment. These sessions should inspire a love of nature, provide enriching, meaningful learning and improve children's mental health and wellbeing by encouraging them to be more active outdoors. We have taken inspiration for these sessions from many places including 'Forest School' and 'Muddy Puddle Teacher'.

We are very excited to share that we are now open until 5pm and have started holiday club sessions for every Half Term, the Easter holidays and the first 3 weeks of the Summer holidays. These sessions are for Playgroup children and any siblings up to the age of 8 years old. For more information email comberton.playgroup@btconnect.com

We will be holding a Christmas Fayre on Saturday 26th November 10am-1pm. If you are interested in purchasing a table for this, please get in touch.

Recreation Ground Oak Tree

As most of you will have seen, the beautiful old Oak tree in the recreation was recently cut down after it was assessed as a possible safety risk. It had Acute Oak Decline and sadly this was the only option. The main trunk remains situated in the same area and we would like to turn the wood into a feature, so the tree can be preserved for the future years to come. We would welcome any ideas on this.

We are also looking for a volunteer tree warden to help the Parish Council maintain Comberton's many trees. Training will be provided.

Endurance Estates and Inspired Villages – a proposal for a new retirement development

The Parish Council have re-arranged an Extraordinary Meeting with Endurance Estates and Inspired Living, who have submitted a pre application to SCDC for a retirement village, on the land off Branch Road. The previous meeting was cancelled due to the official mourning period of HM Queen Elizabeth.

This meeting will now be at 7pm on November 3rd 2022 in the Village Hall and aims to explore the details of the developers proposal.

There will be a representative from SCDC attending and there will be a short session (10 minutes) at the beginning of the meeting for questions from the public.

THE CHALLENGE

SPONSORED BY COSTCUTTER OF COMBERTON

The number solution to this puzzle is in fact a date. The date in question marks the laying of the foundation stone and start of building of an internationally renowned structure. Simply name the structure. Fourteen clues of which Q1 is key. The answer is the square of the answer to Q7. All you need to do is to add the answers to questions 2 to 14 and deduct the total from Q1. Sounds complicated but actually quite straightforward. It took 182 years to finish this place. Good job there was no contractual Completion date/ Penalty clause!

Q1..... The square of Q7 below.

Q2..... Brian Reece was a PC in this radio series.

Q3..... The Dam Busters Squadron.

Q4..... Ben Hur's galley slave number.

Q5..... What parallel divides Korea ?

Q6..... The number opposite to 14 on a dart board.

Q7..... ?? Sunset Strip. TV series.

Q8..... The atomic No.of Iridium divided by the atomic No. of Sodium

Q9..... ?? Dalmatians. Film

Q10..... Fahrenheit ?? Ray Bradbury novel.

Q11..... ?? A Space Odyssey.

Q12..... Q4 answer multiplied by 3

Q13..... The ?? steps In which Richard Hannay becomes involved.

Q14..... Scotland Yard's Whitehall Telephone number.

THE STRUCTURE.....

Entries please to the Challenge Box in Costcutter no later than the 14th November.

The prize, liquid and confectionery goodies generously donated by the store, will be awarded to the first correct entry out of the hat.

Autumn has well and truly arrived at Comberton Library so please pop in and choose an autumnal book and turn over a few leaves. Talking of leaves, we are inviting visitors to colour in a leaf for our autumn wall display - and we are hoping to fill the whole wall with them! Collect a leaf from Comberton Library and give it some much-needed autumn colour.

Recently we launched a 'book of the week' and it is proving to be very popular. Our book of the week picks are always based on reader recommendations - so if you have read a library book that you think others would enjoy please do let us know and we will add it to our selection.

Our Autumn programme for The Library Presents is now available until the end of December with lots of amazing events to choose from. For more information please visit www.library.live/the-library-presents.

Did you know that your library card can be used in all Cambridgeshire libraries? You can borrow, renew and return books at any of our branches. If it is on our system you can even order books you are unable to find in your local branch, and if we have it we can either order it for you or you can make a reservation online. The service is free for children, but we charge 50p for adults and reserved books can be picked up from your local library or the branch you specified when you reserved it. We also have a great selection of e-books, audio books, papers and magazines that you can access from our website.

For more information on our services please visit www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/library, or come in and have a chat with us.

Our popular Rhymetime sessions for 0-4 year olds takes place in the library on alternate Mondays (excluding school/bank holidays). Please come and join us for some noisy fun! The dates up until the end of the year are:

Comberton Allotments & Gardens Association

AGM Thursday 1st December 7.30 in the Village Hall
(Note Change of Date)

The next event is our AGM on Thursday 1st December 2022 - 7.30 for 8 pm in Comberton Village Hall. Come along and enjoy some Cheese & Wine (or juice) with us; hear about our work and events during 2022; pay annual allotment rent if you are a 'Long Road' tenant or just renew your membership of the association.

Unfortunately we will not be able to re-present the Show Trophies, sporting the names of this year's winners, as our engraver has recently fallen and broken his arm; it will probably be into the new year before they are ready!

Our two main events in the year are the Autumn Show and the Spring Plant Sale; they both require considerable effort from the committee to arrange and stage, so we always welcome new members to join us, learn the ropes and ensure that these successful village events continue.

We particularly like to hear new ideas for classes in the Autumn Show, especially in the Handicraft, Cookery and Photography sections and certainly in the Children's sections to ensure we keep them fresh and relevant to current trends.
