Please supply copy via email in a plain text format and images in jpg, png or pdf with 300 dpi. Please send any submissions for the March magazine by 15th February 2023. Submissions will only be acknowledged if requested and this may take up to a week.

From the Editor

The Comberton Contact relies on three key contributions to make it happen. Firstly, there are our advertisers. They are our only source of funding for the magazine; unlike many other parish magazines, the Comberton Contact receives no funding from the Parish Council or other organisation. If you call upon the services of an advertiser in our magazine, please tell them that you saw their advert in the Comberton Contact.

Secondly, there are our contributors. Without the content provided by village organisations and individual contributors the magazine would be reduced to an advertising pamphlet. As always, I would love to have more articles for the magazine - please consider writing something!

And finally, there are our volunteers. Our treasurer Terry Coad manages the advertising which finances the printing of the magazine. Marian Dymott organises the distribution of the magazine. But we rely on the team of deliverers to ensure the magazine arrives on your doorstep. A big thank you to all of them for their hard work throughout the year !

The next meeting will be on Tuesday 28th February at 8pm in the Village Hall when David Stubbings will give a talk on Cambridge Clunch.

Clunch is a form of soft, chalky limestone rock that closely resembles chalk. The cluster of clunch pits dug into the sides of the low chalk ridges bordering the upper Cam valley are an interesting man - made feature of the landscape of South Cambridgeshire.

The Three Musketeers in Review

Comberton Players were thrilled to be back in Pantoland in December after a three year break. The cast of The Three Musketeers rose to the occasion of playing to and entertaining full houses of great audiences. Perhaps the icing on the [Christmas] cake was the review below that we received from one audience member, the regional rep for NODA (National Operatic and Dramatic Association) who sees and reviews many productions in and around Cambridge.

The Three Musketeers
Comberton Players at Comberton Village Hall
Written & Directed by Rachel Nielsen
Musical Director Dan Blackburn
Choreographer Laurie-Lee McDowell
Producer Anna Edwards

On a freezing cold and foggy Sunday afternoon it was nice to sit in a lovely warm venue to be transported to Paris for Comberton Players' latest pantomime The Three Musketeers written and directed by the talented Rachel Nielsen. The script was a funny and clever take on the famous tale but, of course, this is panto so it wasn't true to Alexandre Dumas' original story. Taxes are high, people are miserable and the Musketeers are out of work. Cardinal Richelieu is plotting to oust the (rather silly) King with the help of Milady de Winter. Enter the young, earnest, determined D'Artagnan intent on joining the Musketeers and help them foil the Cardinal & Milady's plot.

The well designed setting made the most of the space available and given there was no capacity for any moveable scenery, scenes flowed into each other smoothly with cast moving larger items and props on and off quickly and in the main unobtrusively. Costumes, sound and lighting were all good. MD Dan Blackburn and Choreographer Laurie-Lee McDowell made good use of the talent in the cast. Solos, duets and ensemble singing were excellent and the choreography well executed.

The fifteen young performers who were Sweeps, Guards, Jewellers and the Chorus performed with confidence and obvious ability. A special "well done" mention to Annie and Freya on the "Cups and Clapping" routine. This called for their complete concentration and they carried it out to perfection.

A strong and talented cast of principals ensured the show had good pace, lots of energy and some great singing. In an exceptional performance Rufus J was super confident and energetic as D'Artagnan more than holding his own amongst the older experienced Principals, all the time very ably supported by his trusty steed Maple Stirrup beautifully played by Freya LN. The Musketeers: Athos (Dan Edwards), Porthos (Elliott Noble) and Aramis Laurie-Lee McDowell were splendid as they went from being out of work to heroes in two and a half hours. Three first-rate performances.

Of course we had to have baddies for them to overcome and these came in the guise of Graham Seed as Cardinal Richelieu and Beth Walthew as that bewitching beauty Milday de Winter. These two were helped — or rather hindered — by the inept guards Roque and Fort played by Mole Piotrowicz and Steve Kennett. Loved the art gallery paintings of The Mona Lisa and The Scream. Very funny. Excellent support came from Victoria Saul (Queen Anne) Bill Adams (King Louis), Yogendra Parmar (Constance), Glynis Ellis (Fleur) the young Eve E (Gem) and Rachel Nielsen doing a Hitchcock as Parisian. The story was linked together well by Catherine Leroy as Eiffel (Paris Personified) who had eyes and ears everywhere, in fact she was rarely off stage.

This was a great show, all the necessary elements for success were there, and Rachel Nielsen's production of her own clever script did a good job in bringing them together. Congratulations to all involved and thank you for inviting me.

THE SHED

Following the note about developing 'A Shed' in Comberton, a number of people have come forward to suggest they might be interested in being involved and getting it started!

The most important thing now is to identify some possible locations:

We need an accessible space, the size of a large shed (or bigger). It would need to be available at least 2 mornings a week, with space to store tools. Ideally, The Shed would have its own space.

Any ideas? Email the vicar on davidnewton@lordsbridge.org

What is A Shed?

A Shed is a community space for people to connect, converse and create. A Shed provides a space for people to do woodwork, or other bits of DIY, alongside other people. Sheds help reduce loneliness and isolation, and provide a lot of fun.

We are being encouraged by local NHS partners to see if we can start a Shed in Comberton. We need a venue, and an initial group who are willing to get it off the ground...

Find out more: menssheds.org.uk.

There is a Shed in Bar Hill, and one in development in Cambourne.

Think you might be up for getting involved:

Village Pond Feeding Tips

It is wonderful to have our newly restored village pond full of water and beginning to attract wildlife.

Nine out of ten ducks agree that feeding ducks is a fun and wholesome activity. But before you head off to our local pond, here are a few things to keep in mind:

DON'T: Leave bread at the pond because it will attract rats.

DON'T: Feed ducks bread or junk food. Foods like bread and crackers have no nutritional value to ducks and can cause malnutrition and painful deformities if consumed too much.

DO: Feed ducks cracked corn, oats, rice, birdseed, frozen peas, chopped lettuce, or sliced grapes. These foods are similar to natural foods ducks will forage for on their own.

DON'T: Leave uneaten food lying around. Leftover food in the water can rot and cause deadly algae blooms that affect local wildlife.

At the moment the pond is rejuvenating so don't dump plants as they may conflict with the plan..

Don't leave food around the pond unless you see actively feeding ducks it will NOT encourage ducks !

Comberton Players Pantomime in the Village Hall

After a three year break of no pantomime in the Village Hall (due to Covid) Comberton Players returned with The Three Musketeers. Not usually regarded as pantomime material, Rachel Nielsen's clever script certainly made it into one. Rachel also directed the pantomime and performed in it (albeit a small part). She has written and directed excellent pantomimes in the past and this was no exception. The audience was thoroughly entertained by the performance with a cast of over 30 including numerous young people. The pantomime was supported by an excellent production team.

Why go into Cambridge for a pantomime when such productions as this are on our doorstep?

I have now resumed the Chairmanship of FOSM, having completed my term as President of the British Section of Ingenieurs et Scientifiques de France. I am grateful to Godfrey Curtis who stood in as Chairman in my absence from 2019 and brought fresh energy to our activities especially to our publicity and the carpark and Churchyard wall repair projects, all despite Covid.

At the beginning of 2022 FOSM stirred again after COVID. More restoration work was necessary for the fabric of St. Mary's Church. Funds to be raised and people to be gathered! Owing to continued postponement by the builders, repair of the wall has been delayed "until better weather". Grant application for the main car park progresses.

The upgrade of the car park will provide hard standing for disability parking. Fresh gravel will prevent the pooling rainwater which prevents parking. This car park is not simply for the Church's use.

It is also a gateway. Visitors come to care for graves, for quiet or to watch the seasonal changes happening in the Churchyard with the Re-wilding Project. They may come to walk the Causeway or to tramp the old ridgeways on the south side of Comberton. The Parochial Church Council (PCC) is determined to keep the Church open for Visitors in the daytime. Only last October thieves broke in -the Church is a little remote from the village. Break-ins damage the security systems. Repairs, replacements and insurance all cost the PCC more money.

Throughout the year we have placed articles in Contact. Last year we organised a special Sunday afternoon of walking on Sunday 22nd May 2022. Our thanks to Paul Hardy, Revd. Chris Westgarth, and Jane Hughes, in particular. The Walks picked up on an old tradition of Beating the Bounds on Rogation Sunday. A merry band of walkers from Comberton and beyond took part. We tell the story on the notice board inside the Church which is open to visitors during daylight hours. We hope to repeat this walking event 14th May 2023. Look out for the posters.

Historically, FOSM was created after a detailed inspection of the Church (2014 Quinquennial) showed much decay. Then thieves stole lead from the north roof. Repair work started and to date we have been able to support this work financially to the value £25,300.

The next 5 yearly inspection will be in 2024. No doubt there will be more restoration work to be done. Covid and last summer's heat have greatly hindered the ongoing repair work. It rained hard before Christmas and as I sat singing Carols, I felt several drips of water on my head from the leaking roof! The floor and front benches are stained from repeated water leaks. We know that the whole nave roof will need to be re-leaded quite soon. This is a big, expensive undertaking although, once done, it will keep the building dry for another 100 years. Let us see what the Quinquennial 2024 has to say!

Our first Fundraise of 2023 is 18th February and will be a Recital of Harp and Organ music. Please look out for the flyers around the village and for details in this February issue of Contact. We hope you will be able to come. Even better, ask how you can help the Friends of St. Mary's. We hope you will join us.

Comberton Twinning Association

Why not come on a low-cost trip to France this Spring!

A coach starting from Comberton is booked for the long weekend of Saturday April 29th, returning on Monday May 1st (bank holiday). We will be crossing by ferry, and staying as usual with families in our twin village of Le Vaudreuil in Normandy - near the River Seine about 10 miles from Rouen. Cost is only £70 per adult, children half-price.

For two decades, we have made and received annual visits, and many close friendships have been formed. The aim of the group is for families, couples and individuals to experience the way of life in each other's communities, staying in homes. A return visit by the French will probably be this autumn.

Speaking French is NOT a requirement, although it is a great opportunity for young and not-so-young to improve their language skills.

For more information, see CombertonTwinning.org.uk, or scan the QR code above. To join the coach trip, contact Glynis Ellis, tel 262214, email secretary@combertontwinning.org.uk.

Don't dither - give us a call!
