A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

Please don't tell me that Comberton has nothing to sell or that no-one ever de-clutters. The website for small ads is up and running, although it needs some fine tuning (which it will get). Each advert goes in for one month, the next being July for which it will be updated at the end of June. I am happy to include August and January for the website, although there is no Contact in those months. Come on, let's get selling.

I had my very first conversation with a centenarian this week. What a revelation it was. If I ever make that milestone I hope that my brain is as sharp and eloquent as Ivy's is. Read about it further on in the magazine.

PLEASE HELP.

I have some sad news. Liz Sexton, who has been Treasurer of Contact since 2006, wishes to step down. She has been extremely efficient and has kept me on my toes with the advertising. I shall miss working with her but I do appreciate that she feels ready for a change. I am sure that Liz will be willing to tutor any willing person who will volunteer to take on this role as soon as possible. If you would like to take over from Liz please contact her or myself. You will be very welcome on the team.

Is proud to present the UK premiere of:

"13" the musical

- at Comberton - be the first to see this fabulous off- Broadway show!

Evan Goldman has it all - he's popular, has the 'perfect' family and lives in the greatest city in the world - New York. That is until his parents get divorced and he's forced to move - to a small town in Indiana. Uprooted from his old life, he has to make new friends and somehow negotiate the minefield of High School to become part of the 'in-crowd'.

With wit and searing honesty, 13 is a hilarious, high-energy musical for all ages.

It's about the lessons one learns throughout life and the discovery that the journey to who you want to be starts with discovering who you are. Featuring an explosive rock score by celebrated composer Jason Robert Brown (Parade, The Last Five Years) and performed by an astonishing cast of young actors, 13 is a grown-up story about growing up.

On Saturday 17th July Riverside Theatre company is proud to present "13" for its first showing in the UK. Performances are at 3pm and 7pm, tickets £9/£6

See www.riversidetheatrecompany.co.uk for tickets and full details

- Don't miss it!

MONDAY STUDIO

On the weekend of 10th and 11th July Monday Studio, a village art group, will be organising an Art and Craft exhibition in the Village Hall.

We would like to invite other village people, or members of village-based groups, to join in with us to show off our combined skills in the arts and crafts world.

This can be work in any medium and either amateur or professional. It is not necessary for the work to be for sale, but it would be expected that a percentage of any sale profits will go to the Village Hall funds. Please don't be shy, we know that there is a wealth of talent in the village; come and show us what you do working away in the spare room, at the dining table or closeted in he garage.

Let us show that Comberton has talent.

PARISH COUNCIL REPORT FROM THE CLERK

The Parish Council met on Wednesday 10 June 2010

Recreation Ground

There has been a spate of vandalism at the recreation ground with someone damaging dog and litter bins and smearing dog faeces all over the recreation ground and play equipment. There has also been some graffiti. The Parish Council would like to thank the Recreation Ground Manager and the residents who kindly cleaned this up. The Council will order replacement bins however if anyone has any information on this matter please contact the police on 03454 564564 or Crime Stoppers on 0800 555 111

Parish Council – Councillor Vacancy

Comberton Parish Council still has a member vacancy and invites any parishioner who would like to serve on the Parish Council to write to or email the Clerk. The Parish Council still hopes to fill the vacancy at the earliest opportunity.

Watts Wood interpretation board

As you may be aware the Parish Council has commissioned an interpretation board for Watts Wood which will give information on the site including its history and the flora and fauna. If anyone has information has any background information on the land and its use before the District Council owned it and before the Parish Council took over its management the Clerk would like to hear from you.

The Parish Council thinks that it was once used by a water board but what do you know about it?

Other not discussed at the meeting

The Police have written with the following report:

“The Police have been riding the buses at the weekend evening to discourage any bad behaviour and drinking that may occur leading to Anti-social behaviour within Comberton and surrounding villages. Please continue to report any Anti-social behaviour to the Police control room on 0345 456 456 4.

Although there have not been any reports of rogue trading in this area please be mindful that there has been a Rogue trading incident in Swavesey. I would just like to make you aware in case they do travel to your area.

NEWS FROM THE MERIDIAN PRIMARY SCHOOL

Opportunity - Creativity - Challenge
Excellence for All

I am always amazed at what gets packed into the last half term of the school year in a primary school.

By the time you read this we will have had a (I hope sunny!) school fete. This event is organised by the PTA every year and the amount of time, imagination and energy they devote to it is extraordinary. This year, we wanted the children to feel very fully involved, so each class has been allocated two stalls to run and they have designed the layout and executed the decoration themselves. A truly child-friendly event and one which, going on past experience, will raise an enormous amount of money for those lovely extras in and around school. In particular, the PTA has earmarked £1000 for plants for our new Habitats Garden and planting is already underway.

The children are also enjoying a wide range of visits linked to their classroom work, including trips to Sutton Hoo, a local wildlife-friendly farm and Woburn Safari Park. Meanwhile our Year 6's (who are about to leave us and join the Village College) are undertaking a great deal of transition work, including visits from the secondary teachers, a Science Challenge and an Athletics Festival, all culminating, on 8 July, in their first full day spent at the College. They are all getting very excited – and I believe the vast majority are looking forward to it with undiluted enthusiasm.

At the other end of the school, we are beginning to welcome our new arrivals in the Reception class. They have already been to see a little play of The Gruffalo put on by the present Reception and Key Stage 1 classes; they are invited to enjoy a lunchtime with a parent in June; and they will also visit in small groups during the school day to get used to the environment and their teacher and teaching assistants.

Add to this two Sports Days, the Year 6 disco, visits from South African and Japanese students, a 'Vikings Day', PTA barbecue, Year 6 production...I could go on and on. As I said, always a packed half term, but one which is very enjoyable for children and adults alike.

We will certainly be ready for that summer break, and I look forward to telling you about our new term in September.

Glennis Virgo, Headteacher

IVY PARSLEY, CENTENARIAN

I had the most delightful 'phone call from Ivy Parsley who asked me to put this in the Contact for her.

"I would like to thank all the people of Comberton who kindly sent me the wonderful cards for my 100th birthday".

She then went on to tell me how she celebrated her birthday. Ivy, who has thirteen grandchildren and great grandchildren, was a pupil at St Mary's School in Cambridge. They gave her a two tier cake and two rose trees for her garden. She opened the Meridian School fete – not bad for 100 - and, on the day, had a family luncheon. In the afternoon she had a party for ten neighbours and friends. She received a bouquet of flowers in seven shades of pink wrapped in chiffon and seven other bouquets and five plants. Ivy had the customary card from the Queen and one from Hon Duncan Smith which thrilled her. She is now looking forward to a holiday at Park House on the Sandringham Estate.

What a lady! - Ed.

COMBERTON WI

Our speaker in June was Peter Lawrence, who is an excellent speaker and very knowledgeable about London. He gives many guided walks but was able to transport us to London via his PowerPoint presentation. He was most impressed with the fantastic state-of-the-art equipment in our village hall. Peter's talk focussed on 'Warships to Olympics' – the history of the Lower Lea River Valley. Members learnt about the importance of the Lower Lea River in history as a vital trading route for the Romans and ever since, and as a base for the East India Company and, later, where warships were built. The area now is key to the redevelopment of Stratford initially for the 2012 London Olympics but, Peter explained, the infrastructure is sustainable and a desolate wasteland will be reborn. He reported that works are four months ahead of schedule and progressing well. He was very optimistic that the project will suc-

Le Vaudreuil is some 25 kilometres from Rouen in Normandy, and is therefore only two and a half hours from Calais by car. It is an attractive village of around 3500 inhabitants, many of whom work in the major local industry, pharmaceuticals.

The twinning has developed in many directions, with many lasting friendships made. New members are always welcome. We especially would like to encourage families to become involved. Membership is inexpensive, and speaking French is certainly not a requirement!

Our next visit to Le Vaudreuil will be at the end of September, when the entertainment by the French will be a reprise of the cabaret performed at the opening of their new Village Hall last year. Before then, we are hold-

SUMMER LAWN CARE

Mowing

Mow regularly at the summer height this month. To remove stems that develop this time of year, rake lawn prior to mowing to present them for cutting, otherwise they can remain prostrate in the lawn.

Patio/Driveway Weed Control

Weeds can look unsightly at this time of year in patios and driveways. We can spray a total weed killer to kill them and keep weed free for up to 6 months.

Sprinklers

We have sprinklers for sale at £25. Depending on water pressure they can cover an area the size of a tennis court. Water well, once per week to keep the lawn green.

Feed

It is important that the lawn is given a summer feed to give it the nutrients it needs through until the autumn.

Ants

Ants and their hills are becoming a major summer problem in lawns. We can treat these using a specialist insecticide.

Red Thread

Each year we notice an increase in the disease known as Red Thread. This is first noticeable as irregular bleached patches on the lawn. If you look closely at the infected grass you will see red cotton like threads growing vertically from the blades of grass. It may necessary to spray a fungicide to cure the problem. If you do notice areas of red thread please call us and we will advise accordingly.

GARDEN COLOUR WITH LEAF VARIEGATION

A classic way of introducing light foliage into dark areas of a garden is through using plants with variegated leaves. The vast majority of plants have completely green leaves, some are dark green, such as yew trees and hedges, and some have lighter leaves such as some of the Japanese maples. In that case the light maples would stand out against shrubs or trees with dark foliage. This effect can be used to great advantage in the garden as the eye is drawn to the contrast.

Quirk in biology

The majority of leaf colour variegations are white (cream) or yellow. These changes can arise through viral infection (not very nice), mutation or more commonly through developmental changes in the growing tissue. As far as colour is concerned, changes that lead to white or yellow variations are due to loss of internal structures called chloroplasts. Chloroplasts are microscopic and look like tiny green beads. These contain the main photosynthetic apparatus that uses chlorophyll and light energy to trigger the conversion of carbon dioxide and water into plant-made nutrients. Although the plants normally contain the genetic codes to switch on the growth of a normal green leaf, mistakes can occur very early in leaf development in a tissue called the meristem. Meristem tissue is where differentiation into future tissue has yet to be decided; it is rather like stem cells in animals. In plants with variegated leaves, chloroplast production has been suppressed in the meristems that are destined usually for the margins of the leaves. Hence the lack of green colour in those regions of the leaf.

Reversion

Most gardeners will have experienced that variegated plants often have branches with leaves that have ceased to be variegated; this is called reversion. It is a nuisance as the reverted branches usually grow stronger and take over the plant. Reverted branches can be removed to try to retain the shrub with the desired foliage. Often, particularly with variegated ivies, it is a losing battle.

Useful variegated leaf shrubs

A good garden has many shades of green. A particularly good sunny variegation is Euonymus fortunei 'Emerald 'n' gold' with golden leaf margins; its creamy white equivalent is 'Silver Queen'. Both are small, evergreen and show pink tinted leaf margins in cold winters. These are excellent shrubs and can be trained as topiary. Eleagnus ebbingei 'Gilt edge' has larger leaves margined with yellow, 'Limelight' differs slightly in that it has a central patch of yellow on each leaf. The dogwood Cornus alba 'Elegantissima' has, as its name suggests, beautiful white margins or blotches on the leaves on reddish stems. Pittosporum 'Garnettii' has smallish leaves, grey-green with narrow white margins. This shrub also shows pink edges to the leaves in winter. It produces small flowers but with a strong attractive fragrance; place it close to a door to enjoy the perfume wafting into the house.

Only those of you with an eccentric (warped) turn of mind 'owever and, I 'ave to say, a passing knowledge of the shortcomings of East Londoners as regards the letter H, will succeed. 15 out of 20 could well be the winning entry.

Example: What do birds invariably do to ripe cherries ?
